DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on November 7, 2005 has been entered.

Response to Amendment

2. Receipt is acknowledged of the Amendment filed October 6, 2005.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-4, 6,7, 9-17, 19, 20, and 22-28 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the cited prior art of the record (Dulude et al. (US 6,310,966 B1); Tamada et al. (US 5,017,766); Epstein(US 6,601,046 B1)) fails to disclose, teach, or fairly suggest the claimed person authentication system comprising, among other things, when a service provider has a transaction with a user, the person authentication authority issues the electronic person authentication certificate including a signature written using a private key of the person authentication authority, and the signature is verifiable using a public key of the person authentication authority that is stored by the service provider, where a template is encrypted using a public key and extractable from an electronic person authentication certificate using a private key of the service provider, and after the template is successfully extracted, a person authentication execution entity checks the validity of the template on the basis of the template expiration date when the person authentication is executed on the basis of the electronic person authentication certificate, and then executes the person authentication by comparing the template, stored in the electronic person authentication certificate, with sampling information input by the user on the condition that the validity of the template expiration date has been confirmed. After further search and thorough examination of the present application and in view of the Applicant's arguments and amendments, claims 1-4, 6,7, 9-17, 19, 20, and 22-28 are found to be in condition for allowance over the prior art made of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
